WRAP IT UP

Destination prints feature in this range of silk scarfs, a collab between Qantas and label Bird & Knoll. The spontaneous shots make for beautiful and artful last-minute throws. Our favourite? Bondi Icebergs, of course. $132 each, qantasshop.com.au; birdandknoll.com.

DREAMING OF ITALY

When travel photographer Aline Coquelle and well-connected aristo Gelasio Gaetani d'Aragona Lovatelli decided to collaborate on a visual book tracking Italy's finest wine and the people who lovingly produce it, it was meant to be a celebration of Italian style. And they've succeeded in creating that. Revel in this beautiful journey. The Italian Dream: Wine, Heritage, Soul (Assouline), $110, assouline.com.

WHEN IN ROME

PRIVATE-DRIVER PICK-UP: One must-do in Rome is to hire a private driver in a luxury chauffeured car to collect you after a long-haul flight so you can get straight to the hotel.

PRIVATE VATICAN TOUR: A sunrise excursion with your own private tour of the Vatican Museums, Sistine Chapel and St Peter's Basilica before the crowds descend is a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

VISIT TIVOLI: About 40 minutes from Rome is Villa Adriana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site built by emperor Hadrian in the second century, AD — one of the world's purest examples of classical architecture. Also close by in Lazio are natural hot springs and a cluster of truly chic converted castles, if you feel the sudden urge to stay. italianalluretravel.com.

ONE FOR THE ROAD

This Rimowa Bossa Nova multiwheel case in racing green makes for effortless luggage-spotting at the carousel. $2100, buntleather.com.au.

HIGH FASHION

Net-a-Porter has teamed up with Cathay Pacific as its first inflight e-commerce partner on the A350 craft, which we love. But what we love most is that in-flight purchases can be delivered to your destination in time for your arrival. Irresistible.

Miu Miu shoes, $830, net-a-porter.com.
